
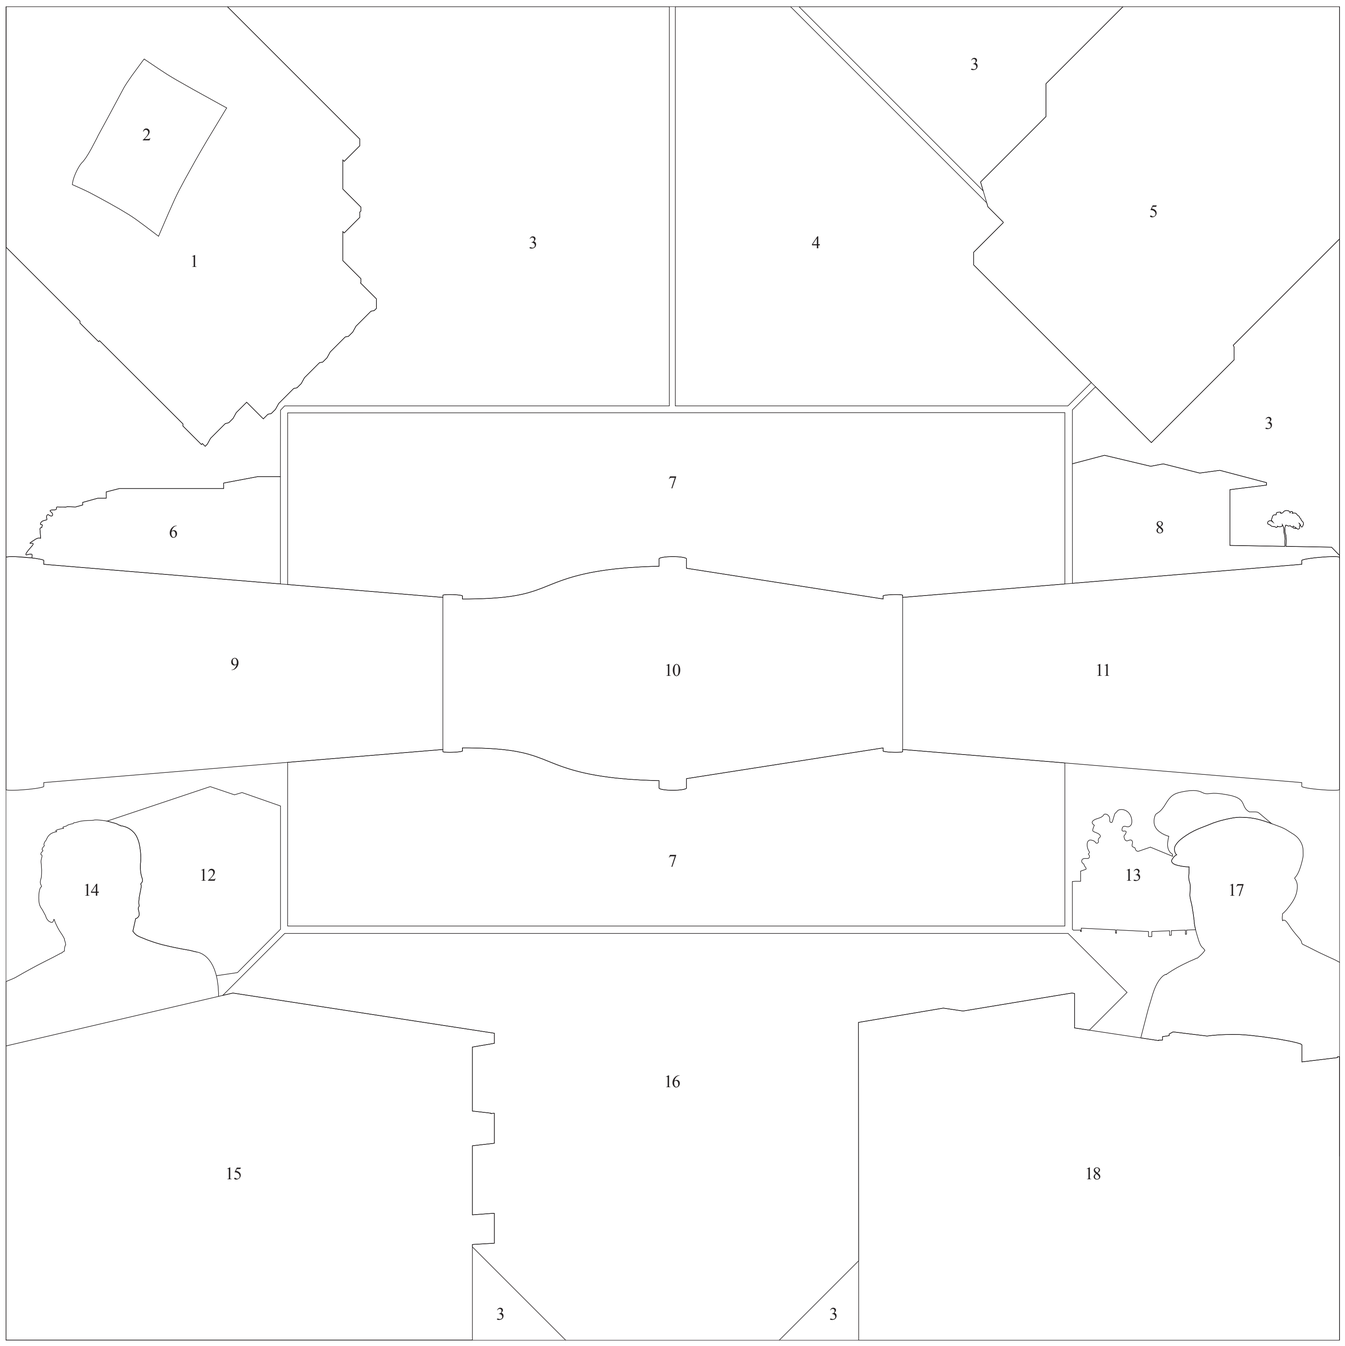
Villas Blanches, 1920s

Julien Bressoud, Silan Kibora, Andrey Pavlov, Nathan Pasche and Maël Zahaf



1 Dom-Ino structure, axonometric view, adapted from a drawing by Le Corbusier in L'Œuvre Complète Volume 1, 1914–15
2 The four composition, sketch, adapted from Le Corbusier in L'Œuvre Complète Volume 1, 1930
3 Ville Radieuse, plan, adapted from Le Corbusier in L'Œuvre Complète Volume 1, 1922
4 Plan of Paris, adapted from a satelit photograph, 2025
5 Villa Citrohan, adapted from a model by Le Corbusier, 1922
6 Villa Dom-ino in raw, perspective view, adapted from Le Corbusier in L'Œuvre Complète Volume 1,1914–15
7 Mashup of Le Corbusier's purism paintings, adapted from Trois bouteilles, 1922 and Nature morte pâle à la lanterne, 1926
8 Villa Citrohan, perspective view, adapted from Le Corbusier in L'Œuvre Complète Volume 1, 1920
9 Roof terrace, adapted from a photograph by Paul Kozlowski published on Fondation Le Corbusier, accessed 2025
10 Five point of architecture, perspective frieze, adapted from drawings by Le Corbusier in L'Œuvre Complète Volume 1, 1926–27
11 Window of villa Savoye, adapted from a photograph published on Fondation Le Corbusier, accessed 2025
12 Immeuble Villa, perspective view, adapted from Le Corbusier in L'Œuvre Complète Volume 1, 1922
13 Pavillon Esprit Nouveau, perspective drawing, adapted from an exterior photograph, 1925
14 Portrait of Lucien Baizeau, adapted from a photopraph published on Geneanet, accessed 2025
15 Villa Baizeau, perspective view, adapted from a photograph by Xavier Baizeau, 1930
16 Mashup of Le Corbusier's plans, adapted from plans of villa Stein, 1927 and villa Baizeau, 1928
17 Portrait of Micheal Stein, adapted from a photograph by Gertrude Stein Collection, 1906
18 Villa Stein, adapted from a photograph published on Fondation Le Corbusier, accessed 2025